

Amit Singh Creative Director & Cinematographer

An experienced Creative Director and Cinematographer with a deep understanding of stage direction and visual storytelling, he has had a diverse and enriching journey in the film and commercial industry. He directed the stage for BAPS's 100th Anniversary Celebration, a remarkable experience highlighting his expertise. Additionally, he has designed and shot numerous films and commercial ads, refining his visual creativity and storytelling skills. He has been mentored by Suresh Beeswani, known for Shadi Mein Zaroor Aana, Rocky Mental, and Direct Ishq.

He consistently explores new and innovative ideas, translating clients' visions into visually compelling and engaging formats. He aims to add a unique and memorable touch to every project, providing audiences with impactful and meaningful experiences.

Detail-oriented and committed to client satisfaction, he eagerly seeks new challenges and creative opportunities and aims to elevate his expertise. Amit has done a lot of work as an associate and second unit DOP in many films like Rocky Mental, Shaadi Mein Zaroor Aana, Chicken Curry Law, and Kissebaaz.

His independent work is also remarkable, with Andolan ki Shuruaat—Marathi Film, the TV Serial Radha Krishna on Disney/ Hotstar, Kite: the Messenger, a short film that has been officially selected in various international film festivals, etc. He has innovatively shot Ads like Amul Moti milk and Panchamrit Ghee.

He had also shown his creative skills in the movie Most Common Budbak and Acting Ka Bhoot as Creative Director.

